2. Talked with Richard Arens, HCUA, to indicate receipt of his letter on Alger Hiss and that we were working on the matter. In addition, I explained to him that the contact by the Agency with [redacted] had, at my request, been through [redacted]. I explained to Arens that at the time advice had been sent to the field I did not have at hand the information that [redacted]. [redacted] While Arens was not up to date on the matter he thought no serious problem was involved.

3. Telephoned John Warrington in the office of Senator Styles Bridges indicating we did have available some briefing notes on the Soviet [redacted]. These would be made available to him for briefing of Senator Bridges. Obviously Mr. Warrington did not wish a great amount of detail on this subject and it is believed the SECRET memorandum will be satisfactory for their purposes.
